

Combining human expertise, technology, and hard work: Method Charlie saves you countless hours of frustration and tedious tasks, narrowing down a candidate list for YOU. Our dedicated team sources, evaluates, and “shortlists” qualified and interested candidates. You facilitate interviewing, scheduling, background checks, offers, and onboarding at your pace.

If you are in the process of identifying and developing new leaders or key players who can replace senior management when they leave or retire, First Screen can provide a narrow list usable for succession planning.

“The First Screen is popular with recruiting firms and smart hiring companies of all shapes and sizes. This first step in the recruiting process provides a real candidate list that can be used to pool candidates for the future or immediate contact.”
