

This flexible program dedicates a Method Charlie recruiter to work exclusively for your company and provide unlimited recruiting support on a month-to-month basis. This fixed-cost program positively impacts your bottom line and can reduce traditional recruiting costs by 50%. The Volume Hiring Program can also be utilized by companies searching for an economical solution to requiring a continuous stream of hires for similar positions.

Our team understands the effects of employee turnover and can help mitigate the cost to your business. By already knowing the qualifications of your position, we are able to quickly screen candidates and recommend only the best for your openings.
